NOTES: The final quiz of the half is always an interesting one. Each team was in three preliminary quizzes. The Olympic points were added to their average Olympic points for the half to decide who would quiz in the finals. The hometown Sandy Lake WOOKIES were in first place with 37.44 points with Gardner Chapel SUDDEN IMPACT close behind with 34.42 points. They both were seeded directly into the finals and would wait for their opponent. 1st Baptist ASK had 25.75 points, Highland Presbyterian 2METHS&A PRESBY had 21.48 points, and Sandy Lake EWOKS finished with 21.33 points. These three teams competed for the third spot in the final quiz.

SEMIFINALS: 2METHS&A PRESBY began, and would continue the quiz strongly, with SARAH MCQUADE freezing her chair on question six and then TRAVIS WILSON freezing his on 10. At question thirteen the score was ASK 20, 2METHS&A PRESBY 140, and EWOKS 40. ASK was determined to fight to the end. AMANDA SUTTON answered both 14 and 15 right to freeze her chair and secure her team with a second place. Good job guys!

FINALS: JAKE BASH was on fire in the final quiz. He froze his chair on question six and by the time question 10 had come along he had won 6 jumps! At question 12, the score was WOOKIES 30, SUDDEN IMPACT 80, and 2METHS&A PRESBY 0. MATT SHANNON answered question 14 to bring his team up to 50 points and then froze his chair on question 16 to end the quiz. Great quizzing everyone and a special congrats to the 1st half Champions: SUDDEN IMPACT!

QUIZZER OF THE DAY: Our quizzer of the day honor goes to JAKE BASH. Jake led his team to the finals and has quite an achievement in that he has frozen his chair 28 out of 28 quizzes. Impressive! Way to go JAKE!

Next quiz: The first quiz of the 2nd half will be held on January 12th at Highland Presbyterian Church and will cover John chapter 12 only.
